3. PRINCIPLES

This Code of Conduct is issued by British Fencing, the governing body of the sport of fencing in the UK.

- 3.1 Who is covered by this Code of Conduct? This Code of Conduct applies to all Organisations and Persons participating and associated in fencing activity. 'Person' means a fencer, parent, spectator, supporter, trainer, mentor, referee, organiser, coach, selector, armourer, medical officer, physiotherapist or any other individual who is or has been at any time involved in the Sport, or in the organisation, administration or promotion of the Sport. This includes participation and association with all UK representative fencing activity wherever this might take place.
- 3.2 What is the purpose of this Code of Conduct? The purpose is to set out the standards of conduct that are expected and required of all those involved in fencing. It recognises the additional duty of care that exists towards persons under the age of 18 ('Children') and Adults at Risk (as defined in The Care Act 2014). These standards reflect BF's vision to create a strong, successful and sustainable fencing community and our mission to grow fencing by inspiring and enabling people to start, stay and succeed in fencing, as well as reflecting generally recognised standards of discipline and good sporting behaviour. These standards also reflect BF's commitment to creating environments free from harassment and abuse.

- 3.3 What behaviours are covered by this Code of Conduct? All behaviours are covered, conduct whether in person, in writing or using any form of electronic and social media communication channels.
- 3.4 Which standards apply to me? This Code of Conduct is arranged so that the standards which apply to every Person (irrespective of their role or participation in fencing) are set out first and then, for certain groups, additional more specific standards are set out which are applicable to that particular group. Not being aware of a standard will not be an acceptable reason for not complying.
- 3.5 What are the consequences of not complying? If you do not comply with any one or more of the standards set out in this Code of Conduct, then it may result in British Fencing bringing disciplinary and/or safeguarding proceedings under the BF Disciplinary Code or taking other action against you. You may also face disciplinary proceedings from other organisations including but not limited to International Governing Bodies (FIE/EFC), Home Nations, Clubs.
